

Xanadu Collection

Patterns in this collection are inspired by traditional chinoiserie designs with a greater modern western influence. They are designed to repeat in a similar way to patterns popular in 18th century European palaces. Motifs chosen for the Xanadu collection derive from porcelain, silk and lacquerware objects of desire that were imported into Europe from China and Japan during the 18th century. Using decorative iconographies Xanadu creates a contemporary international collection that will leave a lasting impression. All designs in this collection are offered in two scales.
